Highlights from Last Week

Notes from Our Last Meeting

- In accordance with the by-laws, the names of the 2 year term directors shall be posted in the bulletin three times before being voted in: Tally DaPore, Debbie McKelvey and Laurie Holscher.

- Congratulations to Laurie & Ted and their new baby boy, Elliot, born on July 25, 2010.

-Debbie is still on the mend following her knee surgery. We hope to see her back soon.

-Herb was happy to report that he is not going to have hip replacement surgery. He also shared with us the good news that his daughter's mammogram came back negative.

-Susan's son, Josh, made the drum line for the Wando High School Band. Way to go, Josh!!!!

Membership News

Alyssa Sales was inducted as our newest member. She is a CPA with Welch, Roberts & Ambum, LP.

Please remember that we are a MEMBERSHIP based organization. Without members we wouldn't exist. This is a challenge for every member to bring at least one guest (who hopefully will become a new member) between now and December 29, 2010. And Tally will be keeping the tally!

Drawing Winners

Arthur won the insurance pool.

Congrats all and please remember to drink responsibly.

Last Week's Program....General- No Guest Speaker

-Michael reported that we have sold $22,695 in ads towards our goal of $35,000. He thanked everyone for a great effort. Tony noted that many companies will be planning their 2011 advertising budgets in Nov/Dec so we should start trying to secure commitments then rather than waiting until the summer. Ned added that each year we talk about sending out a thank you letter after the Classic to all advertisers, but never have, so strongly urged that we do so this year.

-Dick has ordered new tee shirts and visors for all volunteers.

-Danny unveiled the new Sertoma logo showing a church steeple with a cross that is a widely used symbol for the Holy City. He also updated us on Wing-a-Palooza saying that we will be able to sell 2,000 tickets for the event at $10.00 in advance and $15.00 at the door. So far he has spoken to over 30 area restaurants and all have been enthusiastic about this event.
