Welcome to Sertoma!

Today's Program

Notes from Our Last Meeting

- In accordance with the by-laws, the names of the 2 year term directors shall be posted in the bulletin three times before being voted in: Tally DaPore, Debbie McKelvey and Laurie Holscher.
- Michael thanked everyone who helped out at the Cheerleaders Party, noting that 15 members were there.
- Debbie's operation went well and she will be going home today.
- Ads for the Football Classic close at 2:00 pm Monday, July 26. We have about 50% of the budgeted ads sold for a total of $16,300.
- Danny presented the new Fall fundraiser for the club: Wing-A-Palooza, which will be held at the Gaillard Auditorium on October 13 from 5-10 pm. Danny discovered that Springfield (MO) Sertoma has done this, raising over $70,000 in one evening.
- Tally performed his first week as Sergeant-at-Arms and collected a record $7 in fines...sorry Susan ☺.
- AND...a BIG thank you to Lisa for writing the Bulletin for 3 years!!!

Membership News

Last Week's Program....

Barbara Franklin from AGING IN PLACE

- The SC Aging In Place Coalition (SCAIP) is a non-profit organization advocating for people to remain in their residence independently, comfortably and safely.
- AARP finds that 82% of elder people surveyed want to remain in their homes.
- The SCAIP member organizations cover 5 important areas dealing with aging: healthy living, livable residences, financial & legal, supportive relationships, and transportation.
- SCAIP has an active speakers bureau and welcomes the opportunity to promote healthy living alternatives for people as they age.
